Subject: Review of Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) status for Environmental Groups whose Members are Breaking the Law

Hi

I believe that any person or group has the right to voice their opinion provided they do so within the law.

It is unacceptable that persons or groups that are afforded preferential benefits from our tax law are engaged in activities outside the law.

Therefore:

1. Any environmental protest group that breaks the law should immediately have their DGR status revoked.
2. To be eligible for DGR status, the primary purpose of an environmental charity should be 'on-ground' work that improves the local environment.

Your sincerely

Paul Duncan
