Subject: Opposition to tax deduct-ability to charities

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to oppose tax deduct-ability to charities that continually break the law and put themselves and others at risk of danger with these protests.

- All environmental charities should be regularly reviewed to make sure they are abiding by the law.
- Any environmental protest group that breaks the law should immediately have their DGR status revoked. Taxpayers should not subsidise illegal protests by anti-mining groups.
- To be eligible for DGR status, the primary purpose of an environmental charity should be 'on-ground' work that improves the local environment

Cheers,

Damon Hooker
