

Dear Treasury,

I strongly support an exemption for GST on feminine hygiene products. I particularly support the definition set out in the consultation paper. Many women are now using moon cups and period underwear for environmental reasons. It is very important that these products are included in the definition.