

Publish What You Pay United States

ActionAid International USA
Amnesty International
Bank Information Center
CARE USA
Catholic Relief Services
Columban Center for Advocacy and Outreach
CorpWatch
Crude Accountability
EarthRights International
EARTHWORKS
Environmental Defense Fund
EG Justice
Environmental Defense
Friends of the Earth
Gender Action
Global Financial Integrity
Global Rights
Global Witness
Government Accountability Project
Human Rights Watch
International Budget Project
International Labor Rights Forum
Justice in Nigeria Now
ONE Campaign
Open Society Policy Center
Oxfam America
Pacific Environment
Presbyterian Church USA
Project on Government Oversight
Revenue Watch Institute
Robert F. Kennedy Center for Human Rights
Sierra Club
Sustainable Energy & Economy Network
United Steelworkers

May 31, 2013

Principal Adviser
Corporate and International Tax Division
The Treasury
Langton Crescent
PARKES ACT 2600
Via Email: beps@treasury.gov.au

Re: Implications of the Modern Global Economy for the Taxation of Multinational Enterprises

Dear Sir/Madam,

We commend the Australian Government for opening this timely and important consultation on taxation of multinational enterprises.

With this letter, Publish What You Pay United States endorses the recommendations and position of the Publish What You Pay Australia coalition outlined in a letter to the Treasury dated 31 April 2013.

We thank you in advance for your work and consideration of these important recommendations.

Yours sincerely,

Isabel Munilla
Director, Publish What You Pay United States