

Contents

Terms of Reference: Principles-based Review of the Law of Negligence	ix
Panel of Eminent Persons	xiii
List of Recommendations	1
1. Introduction	25
The formation of the Panel and the Terms of Reference	25
The general task of the Panel.....	26
The scope of the Review	27
Considerations underlying the Report	29
The Review timetable	31
The absence of empirical evidence and its consequences	32
The composition of the Panel	33
Consultations and submissions	33
The structure of the Report.....	33
Acknowledgments	34
2. Implementation of the Panel's Recommendations	35
Overarching recommendation	35
3. Professional Negligence	37
Preliminary: the dichotomy between treatment and information	37
Treatment	37
The provision of information	45
Expert evidence	54
Another procedural issue.....	57
Other relevant issues.....	57

4. Not-for-Profit Organisations	59
Exemption from or limitation of liability	59
Recreational activities and services: NPOs.....	61
Recreational activities and services generally.....	62
Warning and giving notice of obvious risks	67
Emergency services	69
5. Trade Practices	71
The Interaction between the Trade Practices Act and the law of negligence	72
Part IVA	74
Part V Div 1.....	76
Part V Div 1A, Part V Div 2A and Part VA.....	79
Consumer protection	80
Section 74, s 68 and the Bill.....	81
6. Limitation of Actions	85
The nature of limitation periods	85
Limitation period issues	86
The date when the limitation period should commence	87
The long-stop provision and the discretionary power to extend.....	92
Suspension of the limitation period: minors and incapacitated persons	94
Survival of actions	98
Contribution between tortfeasors.....	99
Early notification system.....	99
7. Foreseeability, Standard of Care, Causation and Remoteness of Damage	101
General introduction	101
Standard of care	102
Emergency services and the standard of care	107
Causation and remoteness of damage	108
The two-pronged test of causation: factual causation.....	109
The two-pronged test of causation: liability for consequences.....	114

8. Contributory Negligence, Assumption of Risk and Duties of Protection	121
Contributory negligence.....	121
Assumption of risk and 100 per cent contributory negligence.....	127
Assumption of risk	129
Duties of protection.....	131
9. Mental Harm	135
Types of mental harm.....	135
Pure mental harm	136
Consequential mental harm.....	146
Expert Evidence.....	149
10. Public Authorities	151
The problem addressed.....	151
A policy defence	153
An argument of principle for the policy defence	154
When should the policy defence be available?	155
The effect of the policy defence.....	157
Compatibility	160
Breach of statutory duty.....	161
11. Non-Delegable Duties and Vicarious Liability	165
What are non-delegable duties?.....	165
The problem with non-delegable duties	167
Volunteers.....	170
12. Proportionate Liability	173
The concepts of joint and several liability and proportionate liability.....	173
Law reform, academic and legislative opinions regarding the issue	175
Arguments advanced against solidary liability.....	176
The problem with proportionate liability	178
An option for proportionate liability	178
Contribution between parties liable for the same harm.....	179

13. Damages	181
The Panel's approach to this Term of Reference.....	181
The need for national consistency.....	183
Legal costs of smaller claims.....	185
General (or non-economic) damages.....	186
Damages for loss of earning capacity	195
Cost of care	198
Gratuitous care	199
Damages for loss of capacity to care for others	205
Property modifications	207
Expenses of visits by relatives.....	207
Discount rates.....	208
Interest.....	212
Damages recoverable by dependants of persons killed as a result of wrongful acts or omissions	213
Structured settlements.....	214
Loss of superannuation benefits.....	217
Collateral benefits	218
Exemplary and aggravated damages.....	224
Indexation of fixed monetary amounts	227
Appendices	229
Appendix A: Trade Practices Act 1974 and state and territory equivalents.....	230
Definitions	237
List of Submissions	241
List of Consultations and Advice	245
Table of Cases	249
Table of Legislation	253
List of Tables	255