

Hands off to Any Modification on House Depreciation Rules

My family is strongly against any changes to the current house depreciation policy. Stable and predicible legislation is what you should do.

Andy