

From: Michael Wild
To: DGR Inbox
Subject: treasury discussion paper
Date: Wednesday, 2 August 2017 5:23:02 PM

To Whom It May Concern.

As a regular donator to environment groups I am not happy to hear that the government is considering restricting further how much environmental groups can set their own priorities, by proposing that these groups be required to spend 50% of their funds on remediation.

This outcome is detrimental to the goals and purposes of these groups and to my own wishes in regards to what they do with the donations I make to them.

In Health,

Michael Wild
