

Better Tax White Paper Submissions: Superannuation

Consider making superannuation contributions at a 15% discount to average tax rate. If a person earns more, their super contributions tax will be more, but will always be a discount relative to earnings based on the previous financial year.

For people whose net tax rate is below 15%, then there is no tax on contributions.