

Dear Treasury,

One of the main reasons for the public's lack of confidence in Superannuation is due to successive governments tinkering endlessly with the rules thereof. If changes to the rules could be limited to once every 5 years, overseen by the Council, I believe people would feel much more confident and be willing to contribute more.

Regards,
Andrena Mason
143 Rubicon Cres
Kuraby QLD 4112