Dear s22 :

- Copy of the application is attached in word format.
- There is no need (that I am aware of) for urgent consideration of the proposed interim orders.
- I will compile all of the footnoted materials and PDF them and send them to you by tomorrow morning.

Regards
 James

Dear Mr Wheeldon,

We are in receipt of your application. Please send us a Word version of the application (excluding the attachment) and provide us with copies of the footnoted materials, preferably as a single PDF.

In relation to your request for interim orders, please advise whether the need for interim orders requires urgent consideration by the Panel's President or it can wait for consideration by the sitting Panel.

If you have any queries, please contact me.

Regards,

Subject: Application - Innate Immunotherapeutics Ltd

Dear Panel Executive

Attached is an application for a declaration of unacceptable circumstances in respect of the affairs of Innate Immunotherapeutics Ltd.

I have cc'ed Innate (per its CEO and Company Secretary) and ASIC on this email.

I have not been able to locate an email address for Mr Chris Collins, who is named in this application and thus I am presently unable to serve a copy of it on him.

I'd appreciate if you could acknowledge receipt of this application.

Kind regards
James Wheeldon

Dear James

Treasury are currently preparing an invoice for the application fee which includes details for different payment options. As soon as we receive that invoice (expected to be over the next few days) we will forward that invoice to you.

Kind regards
