Dear s 22

We have updated the ministerial submission to reflect last minute changes to the transaction. We understand that the letter will be walked around once signed from the Trade Minister's office. I understand that they have been in contact with s 22

Regards
Cate

The letter has been signed by the FM and is currently with the TTIMO. We are told it should arrive in the TO later today. We'll send up a new minsub in the next couple of hours. We haven't changed the letter, but the submission will outline the changes that led to the delay.

Regards
Cate

Hi s 22

Just flagging that this issue looks like the letter and transaction are on again. We have prepared another submission on this, and will update the Treasurer on any changes. I have let DFAT know that we won't ask the Treasurer to sign anything until we have confirmation that this is actually happening this time.

Regards
Cate

Yep, just spoke to s 22 – he’s been in touch with the TTIMO. Can we send up with the unsigned letter via PDMS and email and s 22 will swap it out when it comes in. It will be walked from office to office.

This is what I was looking for, I assume we attach the unsigned version and the TO swaps it out for the signed one.

I think we keep them in as a record, but I have reordered a bit and stuck in a sub-heading. I guess this is good to go so needs to be uploaded to PDMS. Do we have another version of the unsigned letter to attach and swap out?

Cate
