

Post Office Bank

The Australian Government has sold the citizens of Australia to the global elite bankers with your BIG 4 policies, bail in laws and the ongoing destruction of our currency.

A good step towards reversing these atrocities against the people would be to introduce a Post Office Bank with laws to prevent it ever being privatized without approval by referendum.