I am writing to express my strong opinion that we need “A New Peoples Bank” like the original Commonwealth Bank.

Australia needs an alternative public banking system that provides financial services to all communities and invests in our nation’s future.

I ask the House to immediately establish: -

- a national postal Bank that will operate through Australia Post’s thousands of post offices and
- a national development bank to invest in infrastructure and productive industries.

Yours faithfully

(Mrs) Joan C James
