

Regional Banking

We would like to support regional banking in Australia AU

It is vital for country residents to have a banking service that is an Australian banking service. Having had a family business in a regional area in the 1960's showed me the importance of this Postal banking service. This service must be continued for the country areas to prosper.

Regards

Brian & Wendy MAYMAN