

The need for a Regional Bank,

As the previous owner of the local post office I know how important it is to have a Banking service available to small communities, especially those that are relatively isolated as we are.

With the trend of Banks reducing their presence with face to face service we need an alternative and Regional Banking is ideal.

I whole heartedly support any move to improve the Banking service available in local Post Offices.

Yours sincerely ,

Steve Sulis jp.