

I object strongly to the proposed change in legislation to franked dividends and capital raising. You have tried this once in another way and you lost the election.

from Nicholai Knuppe