

Sent from my iPhone. The proposal is just no in anyway fair to retirees that have invested and lived on income from franked dividends. The Gov promised before election that no changes would be made to franking credits. The proposal is just proving that lies and deceit are the method of gaining government and again the ordinary retirees lose Disgraceful. Darrell Mackenzie